Flaschenbier: Murauer Märzen, Wieselburger Stammbräu, Beck's, Foster's, Weihenstephaner, Edelweiss, Clausthaler

Description: discount Styrian cooking combined with a traditional Austrian beer pub. The food selection began with only 5 meals! The hits (then as now) were the Giant Wiener (schnitzel) and the Giant Cordon Bleu (schnitzel). Topping them both is their famous Giant Steak Roll, which has now become indispensable for good reason in the university area. This was the second pub in the Golden Ball chain which opened in 2000. Several more have opened in Graz and Leoben, but this is the most traditional of them all. 100 seats

Open: daily 1500–2400hrs

Draught Beer: Marienbräu Hell, Marienbräu Dunkel

Description: Idyllically situated on the outskirts of Graz, Marienbräu from the start (July 2004) became a very popular tourist destination. The small bar is very atmospheric - otherwise there is here, as in many breweries in Styria, the impression that it's a brewpub to the usual Germanic formula. The beer could be more courageous. 110 seats in the restaurant, 70 in the garden

Open: Tu–Sa 1100–2400hrs

Fassbier: Puntigamer, Hausbier aus der Brauerei Herzog

Flaschenbier: Biere aus der Brauerei Herzog: Frauenbier, Herrenpils, Dunkles, Weizen und saisonale Spezialitäten

Description: Steindorf is a not very easy-to-find district of Wundschuh - but definitely worth the journey: From the beer garden has a beautiful view and the idiosyncratic designed counter (bought transferred many years ago) is a focal point for themselves. Again and again, beer tasting, even in an annotated beer dinner. 50 seats in the dining room, 18 in Jägerstüberl, 6 and 90 at the bar in the garden
